

Helping mothers & families achieve long term recovery

ABOUT US & HOW YOU CAN HELP: A WEBINAR

January 23 at 11:00 am EST

REGISTER NOW at www.HealthyConnectionsWV.org to learn about Healthy Connections, a unique community coalition that's helping pregnant women, mothers and their families achieve recovery from substance use disorder.

Healthy Connections serves the Huntington, West Virginia area with a comprehensive approach that includes Family Navigators who guide clients through the spectrum of recovery resources and help build family connections and a healthy support network.

Please join us on January 23 at 11:00 am during National Drug and Alcohol Facts Week® to understand more about Healthy Connections services, partners, background and successes to date.

KEYNOTE PRESENTERS

Healthy Connections' two Co-Chairs:

- Lyn O'Connell, Ph.D., Associate Director of Community Services in the Department of Family and Community Health's Division of Addiction Sciences at the Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine and Marshall Health
- Rebecca Crowder, Executive Director of Lily's Place, the first Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome (NAS) Center in the United States

This free learning session is being produced by Quality Insights, a Charleston, West Virginia-based non-profit that's providing in-kind marketing, branding and outreach services for Healthy Connections as part of its mission to bring people and information together to improve health.

Healthy Connections is a collaboration of more than 30 agencies serving the Huntington area, including Marshall University's Department of Psychology and Department of Social Work, Marshall Health, Marshall University Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine, River Valley Child Development Services, Cabell Huntington Hospital, St. Mary's Medical Center, Valley Health Systems Inc., Cabell Huntington Health Department, the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources, Lily's Place, Recovery Point WV, the City of Huntington, Pretera Center and more.

Space is limited, so REGISTER NOW! Please contact Quality Insights Lead Project Coordinator Crystal Welch at cwelch@qualityinsights.org if you have questions or would like more information.